2016 BATTLE CREEK INCOME TAX RETURN FORM CHANGES

There were no significant changes to the income tax forms.

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

If you had Battle Creek taxable income greater than the total of your personal and dependency exemptions, you must file a tax return — even if you did not file a federal tax return. See Exemptions Schedule for more information on your allowable exemptions. You are required to file a tax return and pay tax even if your employer did not withhold Battle Creek tax from your paycheck. You will be required to make estimated income tax payments if you work for an employer not withholding Battle Creek tax from your 2016 wages.

ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENTS

When your total income tax is greater than the amount of tax withheld plus other credits by $100 or more, you may be required to make quarterly estimated tax payments. File Form BC-1040ES (available on the website) by April 30 of the tax year and pay at least one-fourth (¼) of the estimated tax. The remaining estimated tax is due in three equal payments on June 30 and September 30 of the tax year and January 31 of the following year. Adjust the remaining quarterly payments if your income increases or decreases during the year.

Failure to make required estimated tax payments or underpayment of estimated tax will result in assessment of penalty and interest. If you have made estimated tax payments and do not owe more tax for the year, you still must file a tax return.

DUE DATE AND EXTENSIONS Returns are due on or before May 1, 2017. If a due date falls on a weekend or holiday, the due date becomes the next business day. The due date of the annual income tax return may be extended for a period not to exceed six months. To apply for an extension, file Form BC-4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File an Individual Income Tax Return. Applying for a federal extension does not satisfy the requirement for filing a Battle Creek extension. Application for an extension must be made and the tentative tax due must be paid (MCL 141.664). Filing an extension with payment is not a substitute for making estimated tax payments.

An extension does not extend the time for paying the tax due.

When an extension form is filed and the balance due is paid, it may be assumed that the extension is automatically granted unless otherwise notified. Interest and penalty is charged on taxes paid late even if an extension of time to file is granted. Penalty may be waived by the Income Tax Administrator if the tax paid by the original due date is not understated by more than 5% of tax or the taxpayer is able to show that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause.

AMENDED RETURNS

File amended returns using the BC-1040. Clearly mark AMENDED at the top of the return. If a change on your federal return affects Battle Creek taxable income, you must file an amended return within 90 days of the change and pay the tax due. An adjustment must be made for tax paid or refunds received from the original return. Write in the tax paid or refunds received to the left of the box on page 2, Payments and Credits schedule, line 4; Include the tax paid and subtract refunds from the original return when totaling amended return payments and credits. All schedules supporting the changes should accompany the filing. Every change must be explained. Mail amended returns to: Battle Creek City Income Tax, PO Box 1657, Battle Creek, MI 49016-1657.

CHARGES FOR LATE PAYMENTS

All taxes remaining unpaid after the due date are subject to interest at the rate of 1% above the adjusted prime rate on an annual basis and to penalty at a rate of 1% per month, not to exceed a total penalty of 25% of the tax. The minimum charge for interest and penalty is $2.00.
